MISSION (TO BE) ACCOMPLISHED

Always Intense is a small, upstart indie collective of writers and artists who share a common desire to tell their stories to a wide audience, despite whether or not that audience actually wants to read these stories.

ALWAYS INTENSE

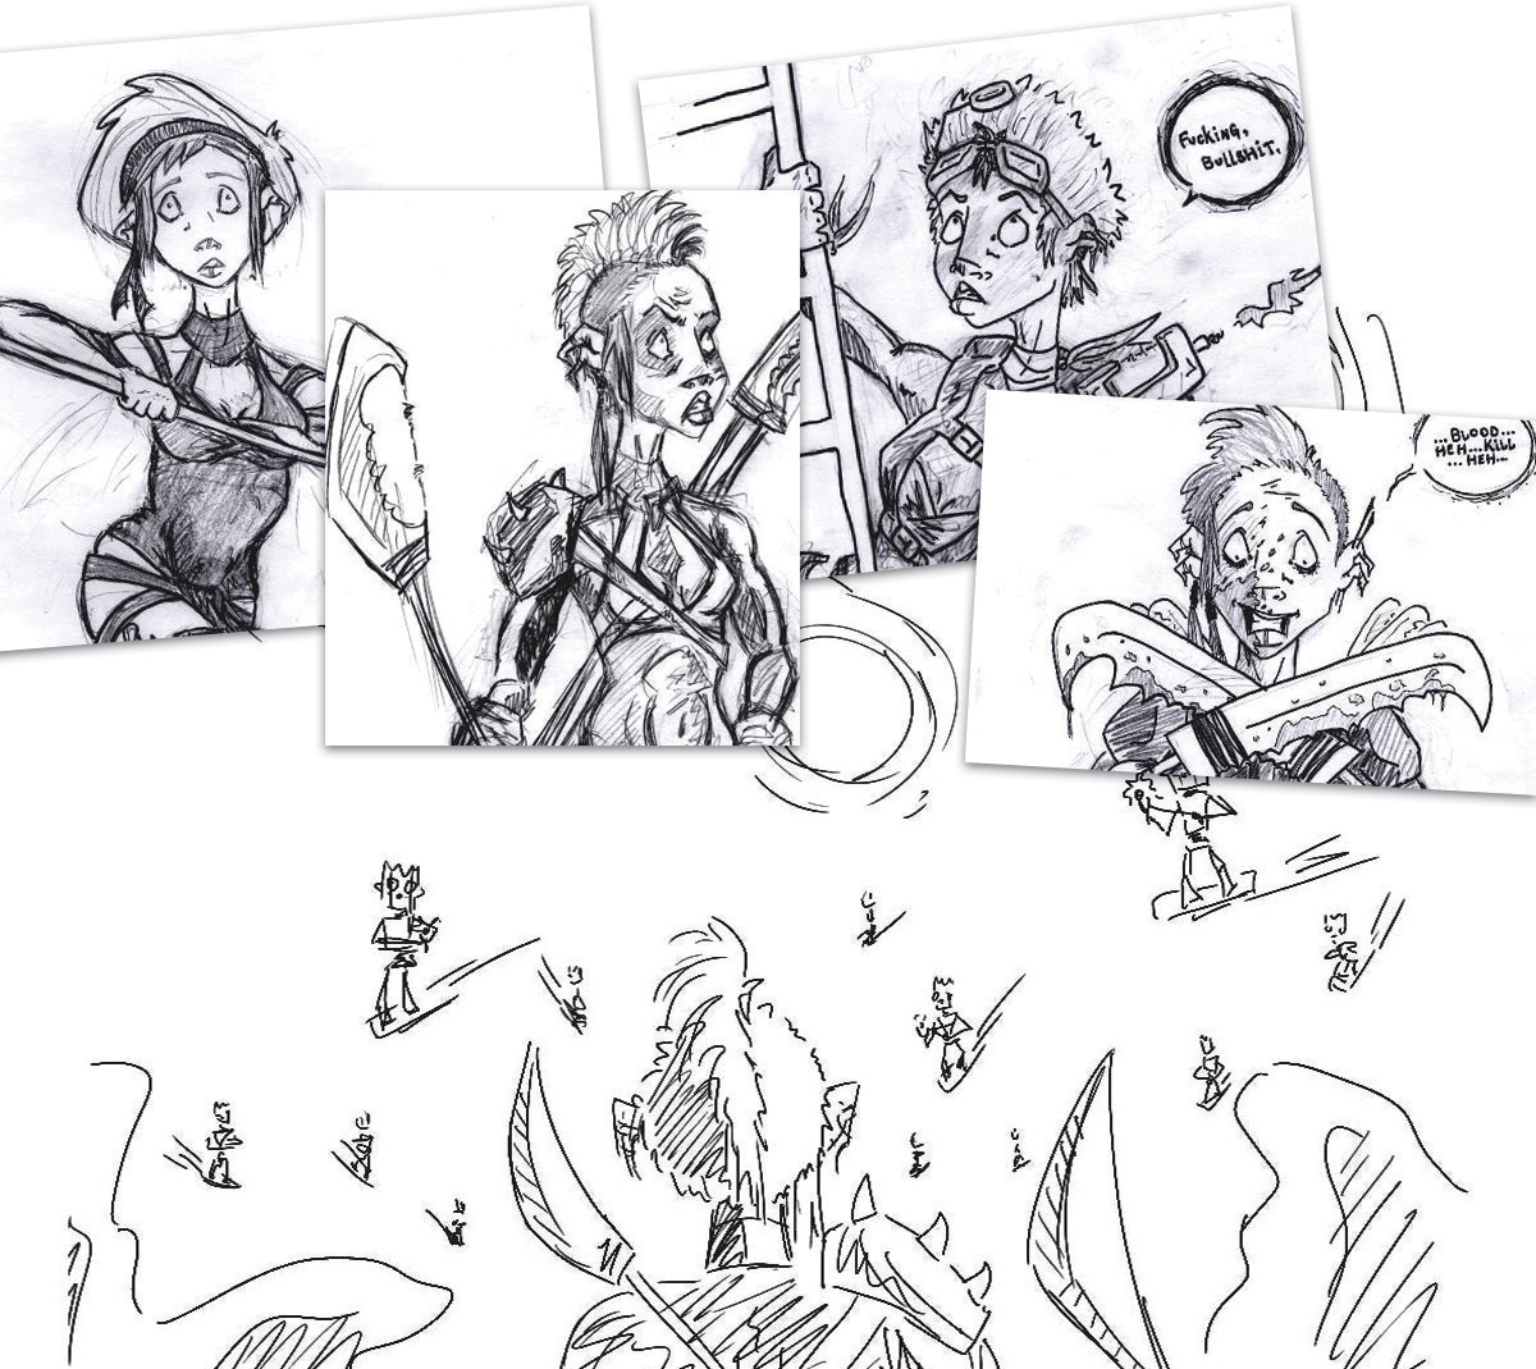
TOM SCIENCE

What're you looking for in a comic? Hard drinking detectives detectiving the shit out of everything? Evil witches cursing people left and right? ICE CREAM!? We got your back. This comic is dumb as hell and crazy hot.

DESTROYERS

Destroyers is based on the lives and interactions of four warrior women whom have all left behind their opressive homeworld, and are now shipmates.

Pedragosa's main goal during the series is to find another warrior-soul she can relate to while her close friend Mirella adds her savage outlook and frequent "Old Days" stories. Kirschner's St. Expedite-ness makes her a little nerdy but lovable. One thing that changes nearly every issue is whom Apache is fighting.



BUG & DEATH

Follow the adventures of a couple wannabe Robin Hoods in their quest to help the poor by stamping out the rich. Bug and Death battle armies of pencil pushers, call center techs, and corporate jerks all to inflict final judgment on those that would harm the have-nots. And there's blood and swear words, so you know they're cool.
